

Halo Effect & Suggestive Sales Policy

(effective 5-4-26)

Purpose

In alignment with our mission to become the Best Place to Work and the Best Restaurant Company—through serving High-Quality food, Delivering Exceptional Hospitality, and Continuous Team Development—we are implementing the Halo Effect & Suggestive Sales Policy.

Providing exceptional hospitality & suggestive sales is not optional; it is essential to our success.

Policy Overview

It is imperative that every team member delivers the highest level of hospitality and service to each and every guest. This includes consistently creating the Halo Effect—a positive, memorable experience that enhances the guest's perception of our brand, our people, and our restaurant environment.

The Halo Effect elevates the overall guest experience, strengthens our culture, and ensures that every guest leaves feeling valued and appreciated.

Halo Effect Expectations

All employees are required to:

1. Create Genuine Guest Connections

- Engage each guest with warmth, energy, and authenticity
- Use friendly conversation to create a personal experience
- Examples include:
 - "That's a great shirt!"
 - "I love that sweater!"
 - "Do you have any special plans today or this weekend?"

2. Deliver a Consistent Hospitality Greeting

- Every guest must be welcomed with enthusiasm:
 - Example: "Hello, What can we make fresh for you today?"

3. Offer the Full Experience (Non-Negotiable)

Every guest must be offered key menu enhancements. This is not optional.

Suggestive Sales Expectations

All employees are required to:

- Suggest fries:
 - “Are you going to be having Cajun fries today, and what size?”
- Offer a drink upgrade:
 - “Would you like the large drink for only 10 cents more?”
- Suggest a milkshake:
 - “How about a strawberry milkshake today? That’s my personal favorite.”

Even if a guest declines, these offerings:

- Suggestive sales enhance the guest experience
- Provides increased perceived value and choice
- Support business performance and profitability

Failure to make these suggestions is not acceptable.

Accountability

All team members are expected to consistently demonstrate the Halo Effect & Suggestive Sales during every shift and with every guest interaction.

Leaders will actively coach, observe, and hold team members accountable to these standards.

Failure to meet these expectations may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

Acknowledgment

I understand the Halo Effect & Suggestive Sales Policy and will consistently deliver this level of hospitality to every guest. I understand that my failure to do so may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination.
